

Broadstairs

One of the loveliest resorts in south east England. The smallest of the three main towns, its long history is reflected in the winding streets and ancient fishermen's cottages nestling around the harbour.

With the quiet charm of the town, a rich history, the timeless appeal of its beaches and the splendour of its clifftops, Broadstairs is endowed with all the delights to enrich your visit.

Assuming you are driving East to the end of the M2

1. From the end of the M2 straight on taking the right hand lane, the road becomes Thanet Way, A299 signposted to Ramsgate and go a further 16+ miles along the dual carriageway 16.21m
2. Over St Nicholas at Wade roundabout, 3rd exit onto A299 signposted to Ramsgate, Thanet Way and go just about 1 mile 1.11m
3. Over Monkton roundabout, 2nd exit onto A253 signposted to Ramsgate, this road is Canterbury Road West and go about one & half miles 1.60m
4. Over Minster roundabout, 2nd exit onto A253 signposted to Broadstairs & Ramsgate, go 2.75 miles. Kent International airport, (Manston), is on your LHS. 2.75m
5. Over roundabout, 1st exit onto A256, Haine Road, signposted to Broadstairs and go nearly 2 miles. 1.9m
6. Over roundabout 2nd exit I think, onto A256, Westwood Road, signposted to Broadstairs and go about half a mile. 0.62m
7. Over several roundabouts, (probably about 5 but there is a lot of new road works here), staying on A256, Westwood Road, signposted to Broadstairs and go about 1 mile. 1m
8. Around a badly signposted roundabout to 3rd exit, (effectively a Right Hand Turn), onto A255, Broadstairs Road, signposted to Broadstairs.
9. Continue on A255, through traffic lights, under the railway bridge and down the high Street. Go about 0.6 miles from the Railway bridge. 1.4m
10. Turn right into Queens Road, (sign posted to Ramsgate), and go 0.25 miles. 0.25m
11. Turn right into The Vale and go 0.3 miles. No 19 is on your RHS immediately before the Church. The tall bright yellow & white building. 0.33m
